MONDAY LETTER

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. The Turkish Department would like to invite you to participate in this event so you can take this opportunity to observe different Turkic countries, cultures, and foods. Also, Greece and Pakistan will be guest countries that will perform music and dance show. This unique trip may help the students with their projects or homework for Turkish Language Class, Social Studies, World History, or Geography Classes.

Also, in this authentic weekend you will be able to spend quality time with your family. Variety of games will be available for children. There will be live music and dance performances from different countries. Homemade Turkish cuisines will be sold at the booths such as kebabs, baklava, Turkish coffee and more. Two charter buses will leave from SST-Discovery on 7th of November. Limited space is available. If you would like to drive to the festival with your family and friends you may pay entrance tickets and follow the busses.

When: 07 November 2009, Saturday
Departure Time: 930am

Where: Downtown Houston: City Hall – Hermann Square
Arrival Time: Approximately 11pm

Fee: Admission (and transportation from the school) is only $10 and free for the kids under the age of 7.

You may purchase food and game tickets for a discount price at SST-Discovery or pay full price at the festival.

Kinder through 5th Grade students will participate to this field trip with their parent(s) or guardian.

The students who attend 6th grade and up may participate alone in this field trip with the permission slip.
